

Far West Ski Foundation Legacy Project

The Far West Ski Foundation was founded in 1962, and its overarching objective is to sustain snowsports to ensure that the inspirational experiences of snowsports will remain for future generations. We are a non-profit, all volunteer 501c3 public benefit corporation.

We are excited to announce our new Legacy Project to members of the Far West Ski Association.

VISION: Archive as many biographies of Far West skiers as possible, while raising money for snow legacy projects in the west.

Organizations and individuals will be indexed alphabetically and by association with clubs and councils. A graphic display will be periodically published and collected information will be available for updating.
